

Answer 1

The languages that are used to develop backend applications are

Python, Java, C#, PHP, JavaScript, Golang, C++, SQL, Kotlin, Ruby
And etc .

Answer 2

Technologies that are needed to be studied are following

- Programming languages
- Database management
- Backend framework and libraries
- API development
- Version control system
- Security practices.